

LICENSING ELIGIBILITY

Before issuing a license to an individual, the individual must present one of the following documents to the municipality indicating that the individual's presence in the United States is authorized under federal law:

Check the box next to the document indicating lawful presence.

<input type="checkbox"/>	An Arizona driver license issued after 1996 or an Arizona non-operating identification license.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A driver license issued by a state that verifies lawful presence in the United States. (See Overview of States' Driver's License Requirements)
<input type="checkbox"/>	A birth certificate or delayed birth certificate issued in any state, territory or possession of the United States.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A United States certificate of birth abroad.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A United States passport.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A foreign passport with a United States visa.
<input type="checkbox"/>	An I-94 form with a photograph.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A United States citizenship and immigration services employment authorization document or refugee travel document.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A United States certificate of naturalization.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A United States certificate of citizenship.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A tribal certificate of Indian blood.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A tribal or bureau of Indian affairs affidavit of birth.

This provision does not apply to an individual, if all of the following apply:

1. The individual is a citizen of a foreign country or, if at the time of application, the individual resides in a foreign country.
2. The benefits that are related to the license do not require the individual to be present in the United States in order to receive those benefits.
